

Assembly Awards 28th October 2016

Prep-I B

Inika Hays for being a positive member of P-IB. You are such a caring, helpful friend in our class who always wears a smile on her face and has a kind word to say!

Charlee Hobson for the fantastic work you achieved when investigating shapes. The informative report you provided on 2D shapes and 3D objects in our environment demonstrated the progress you have made in this area.

Prep-I MB

Ruby Kaye for working hard to learn more alphabet letters, and numbers.

Brody Pearce for displaying increased confidence when making decisions.

I-2 P

Catherine Dore for the way you have applied your literacy and numeracy skills to the recent tests. Well done! You have shown your very best effort, particularly with your reading comprehension. You are soaring high with the stars!

Riley Kaye for how you have settled into your new routine. I am impressed! Your new approach towards your learning tasks will have you grabbing those goals in no time!

2-3MA

Saxon Bonney for using the problem solving framework to clarify the meaning of questions in a variety of situations.

Bella Kaye for her wonderful achievement when reading with Mrs Ollington.

3-4D

Klovi Suljevic for the resilience she shows towards her learning and exceptional results in Mathematics this term.

Lukas Robb for showing care and consideration for his peers and trying hard to have a positive outlook on his experiences at school.

3-4P

Gemma Last for being a reliable and helpful student in the classroom. She has shown excellent skills in her work and is always striving to do her best. Gemma has done a great job looking after the classroom garden.

Noah Purton for being a supportive and caring classmate who is always willing to help others. Noah has shown a positive approach to his learning and is working hard to achieve good results. He has done a great job looking after the classroom garden.

4-5K

Jordan Rowlands for greatly improved self management of your behaviour and also an improved work ethic.

Blair Fidler for an improved work ethic, pushing yourself to do better and positive attitude towards learning tasks.

5-6F

Jye Bassett for really trying hard to improve in all areas of his English work, but especially sentence structure, presentation and handwriting. Well done Jye. Congratulations on your pen licence too.

Chloe Padmore for the great way you have taken to using the class Seesaw blog. You always try to post well thought-out work and relevant, positive comments and questions. Keep up the great work.

5-6H

Jessica Harris for your awesome effort selling cakes at the Cake Stall and working well with students from other schools at the Grade 6 Camp Banksia day. It was terrific to see you talking, participating and having fun with lots of people. It looks like you enjoyed your day a lot!

Bianca Harris for your awesome effort selling cakes at the Cake Stall and working as part of a team with other students from different schools on the Grade 6 Camp Banksia day. Well done on confidently giving change to customers and selling our yummy cakes.
