

Book Review

Wonder by R.J Palacio

I think you should read Wonder because it is an amazing book. There are parts that make you cry or get a little teary eyed and others that make you laugh. I love the message hidden in the book Don't Judge a Book By Its Cover.

Enter the world of August Pullman, a 10 year old boy born with a facial deformity and he is facing his worst fear.....school. I know what you're thinking... that's not that bad. But for Auggie that's the worst thing ever because he has been homeschooled all his life. August has had 27 surgeries to help him breathe, see and hear better.

I personally love the book because it gets you so hooked in and the author paints a picture in your head of what's happening. I love how the book is written from different points of view that don't just drag the book on. They tell you things that you don't know about the first time.

I would give this book a 10 out of 10.
