

Geronimo Stilton:

It's Halloween You 'Fraidy Mouse.

It was Halloween for the mice.

Geronimo made a jack-o-lantern and made a shadow with light by cutting out cardboard and sticking on the back of a stick then Geronimo made a table for the jack-o-lantern by cutting out paper. Then he made a mummy costume with toilet paper and a white T shirt. For tea they had bats eyes on a stick, skeleton fingers and slippery sewer slugs and they drank red termite blood, sewer water and club soda.

I like this book because it is scary funny with cool pictures and cool costumes and amazing food.
