

Assembly Awards August 10 2018

Prep/ID

Ruby for showing so much determination to read and write your red Oxford words. We are excited to see you making lots of progress so far this term. Congratulations, Ruby.

Heath for the exciting progress you have made with your reading. Heath, what a superstar reader you are becoming! We are so excited to see you using your reading strategies and hearing you read so fluently.

Prep /IP

Mia for her improvement in identifying letters and sounds of the alphabet. A huge improvement, Mia. You should be very proud of your achievements.

Mahalia for her improvement in being able to complete writing tasks independently. Well done, Mahalia.

1/2B

Brock, during our class discussion in Science, you were able to articulate your thoughts, ideas and predications around the Balloon Rocket experiment. You also showed fantastic leadership skills in the small group investigations.

Sierra, you have actively used the Zones of Regulations to show self-control in class and respect to others when they are speaking. It's wonderful to see you in the Green Zone more often than not. I can see the effort you are making. Well done.

2/3P

Trae for all the wonderful work you are doing to become a better reader and writer. Your efforts to stay focused are paying off and I love how proud you are of your successes. Keep kicking those goals!

Peter for the way you apply your clever understanding of strategies to your reading, helping you to work out new words quickly and have you move through each level at super speed. Keep up that rocket reading; you are heading for the stars!

3/4BT

Beau for working and completing his tasks as a responsible learner, always doing his best and also being willing to assist others when he can.

Bianca for being a willing worker and learner, setting an example to her classmates as someone who listens, follows instructions readily and works responsibly at her tasks.

4/5K

Mason for always being willing to share his knowledge with us. Mason is a sponge - he soaks up a wealth of information about all sorts of topics! We all learn from him every day. Thanks for being a part of The Kelly Gang in 2018.

Hayden for trying so hard this term and becoming a more responsible and mature Hilly Kid. He demonstrates to us daily that he can choose to do the right thing and we are all so proud of him! Thanks for being a part of The Kelly Gang in 2018.

5/6F

Spencer for consistently trying hard to complete all tasks to the best of his ability every day and never giving up. Spencer is also always willing to put himself forward for various roles involving public speaking and does a great job.

Tobias for taking more responsibility for his own learning with all Mental Maths tasks. Toby has made slow and steady progress in this area through doing his best each day. Small steps lead to big gains. Congratulations, Toby!

5/6HB

Lukas, we are pleased to see you taking responsibility for your own learning in your ERP and working hard to push yourself to do the best job you can. Also, the maturity you have shown when sorting out problems is to be commended. We are very proud of your efforts this term. Well done, Lukas.

Aisha, we are thrilled to see you working tirelessly every day at achieving your learning goals. It has been wonderful to see you so enthusiastic when writing and working on your group's small film festival item and your ERP. Congratulations, Aisha.
