_Wynyard..._

- Wynyard was named after Edward Buckley Wynyard. In the early 1850s, Edward was a military officer.
- Wynyard's population is 5061.
- Wynyard has a river called Inglis river
- Wynyard holds the annual tulip festival in October every year
- On May 2nd 1827 explorer Henry Heller named the river after James Inglis.
- Some of the attractions are Fossil Bluff and Wonders of Wynyard
- A place to go is the Aboriginal fish traps they are used by a funnel in the river and then the aboriginal people catch the fish with there barehands

By Kade